Mr. Sailor Night 2008

"Who floats your boat?"

Alyssa McCarthy and Cardy Glancy don their sailor hats and host the 2008 Mr. Sailor Night.

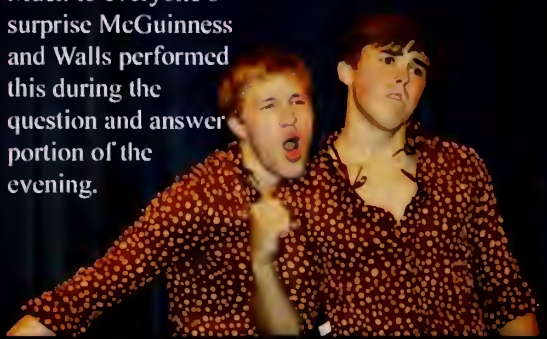
Brian McGuinness serenades an unsuspecting Alex Ciessau.

Cory Walls wants to "Rock with You." Walls' performance lead judges to vote for him as Mr. Sailor 2008. This was his second win at the competition.

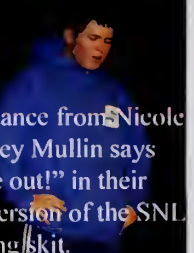
These SHS guys show the audience just how well they can dance.

A newly shorn Ben Cook channels the 80s by singing Rick Astley's "Never Gonna Give You Up."

Rashid "Hannah Montana" Yasin sings an acoustic version of "Rock Star."

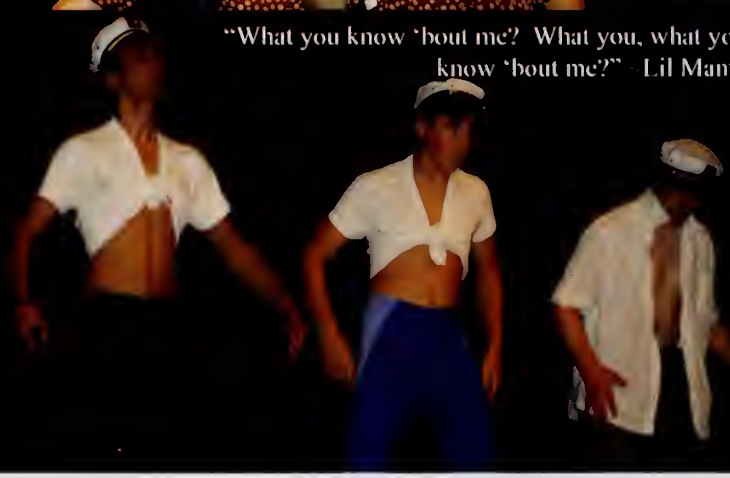


Much to everyone's surprise McGuinness and Walls performed this during the question and answer portion of the evening.

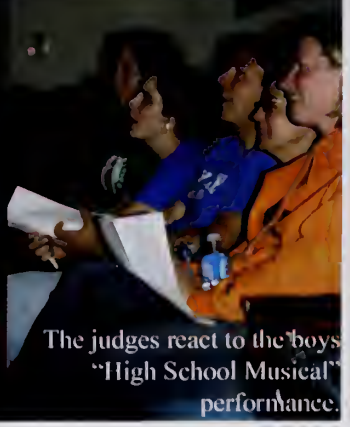


With assistance from Nicole Adduci, Joey Mullin says "Check me out!" in their hilarious version of the SNL cheerleading skit.

Firing up the ladies, Gordon Porter heats up the stage.



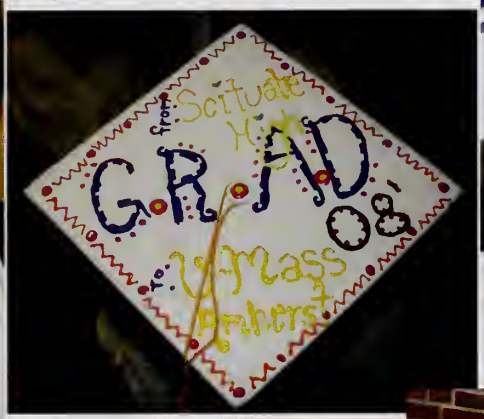
"What you know 'bout me? What you, what you know 'bout me?" - Lil Mama

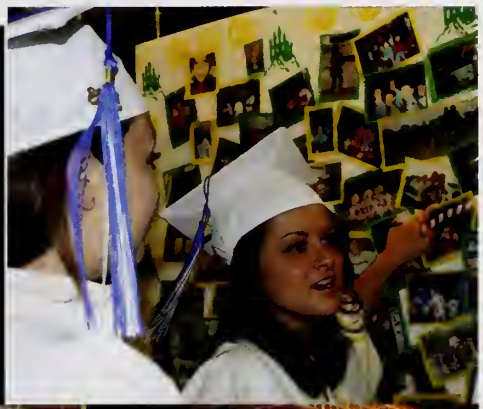


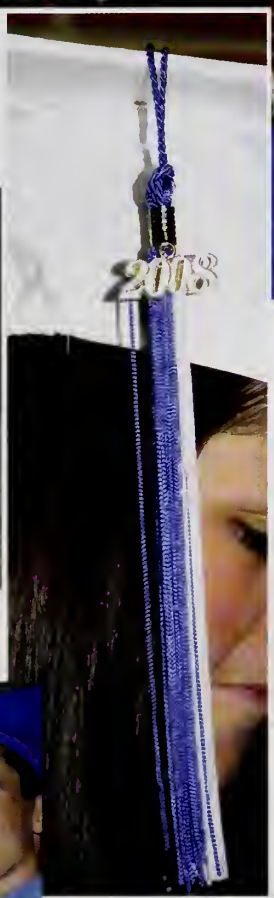
The judges react to the boys "High School Musical" performance.

Graduation Day

June 6, 2008







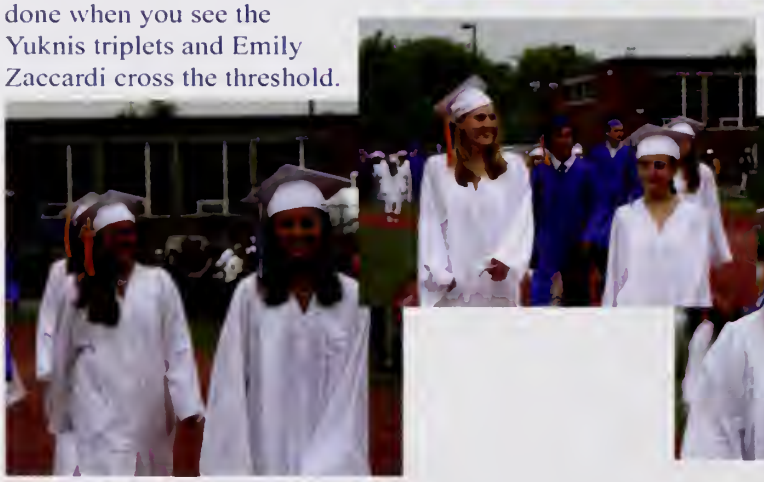
SHS faculty lead the graduation procession. Everyone knows teachers value education; but it is only at graduation that they actually wear their degrees on their shoulders.

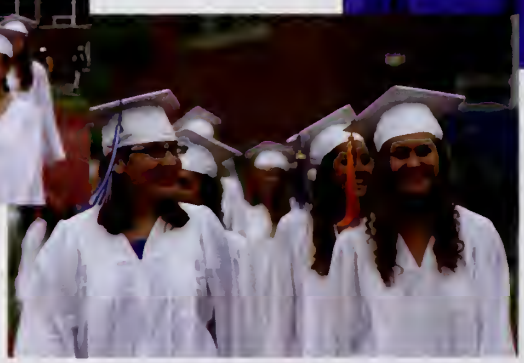
Class of 2008 advisors Mr. McEachern and Ms. St. George lead the graduates out onto the turf field.

Drew D'Arcangelo and Molly Dewar smile knowing they will officially graduate fifteen to twenty minutes earlier than Ashley Scott and Madde Vachon (bottom center).

Lindsay Adams and Erin Brennan glide slowly across the track in their white gowns.

You know you're almost done when you see the Yuknis triplets and Emily Zaccardi cross the threshold.





Being at the beginning of the alphabet was tough as students slowly marched. By the time the "R" crew rounds the corner the procession developed an easy-going stride.

Congratulations!
Class of 2008

Rachel Dunn and Shane Dunphy laugh at Greg Hall's witty salutatorian address. Hall's top 10 list commemorated both the graduates years at SHS and looked to the future.

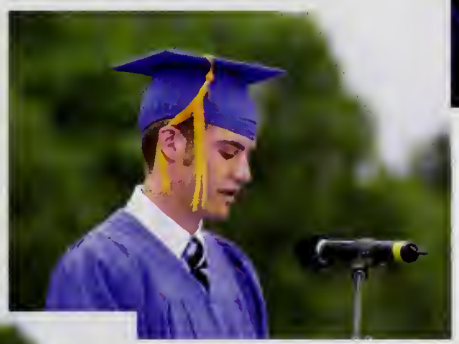
Class President, Nicole Cook, helped the Class of 2008 reflect on its history. Some students have been together since kindergarten, while others just joined the class in the last few years of high school.



Valedictorian Rashid Yasin told the Class of 2008 to make all their dreams and goals a reality in the years to come.

Dr. Pendleton and Dr. Ekstrom listen intently to the graduation speakers. Dr. Pendleton retires at the end of the school year with a life-long commitment to education.

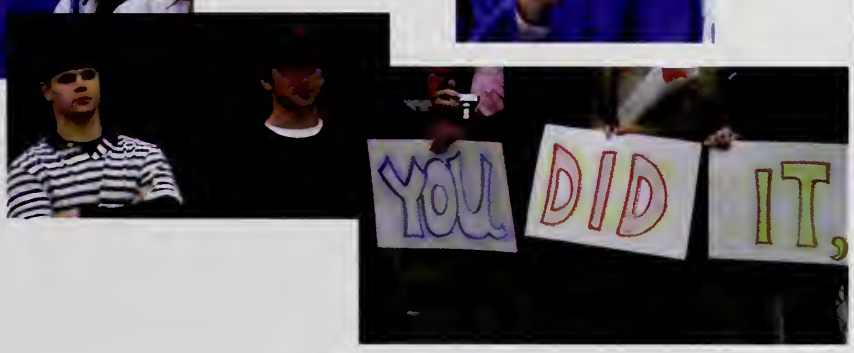
Alex FitzGerald says "Peace out '08!"

Ms. Nuzzo congratulates Katrina Verre on a job well done.



(right) Former SHS students and '08 classmates Sean Travis and Jack Dings grab a spot behind the stage to wish their friends well.

What fictional character would you want to be and why?

"Maybe Dora the Explorer, because I like to travel." Ms. Heffernan

"Doctor Pangloss because he lived the best of all possible worlds. Or Napolean the pig because while four legs are good, two legs are better." Mr. Brogna

"Huck Finn- for the 'fun' of his life and travels." Mr. Castle

"Superman-that's obvious." Mr. McNeil

"Thor-the ability to throw thunderbolts may inspire students to do their homework." Dr. Ekstrom

"Homer's Odysseus-[he] did everything in style. What a journey!" Mr. Gonzales

"Kilgore Trout from Vonnegut's novels, an unappreciated genius is somehow appealing." Ms. Shanley

"Jane Austen's Emma-she was balanced in all key areas." Ms. Herlihy

"Indiana Jones, because he's the man." Mr. Forde

"Scout Finch, she was such a tomboy and so insightful and genuine." Ms. Kalla

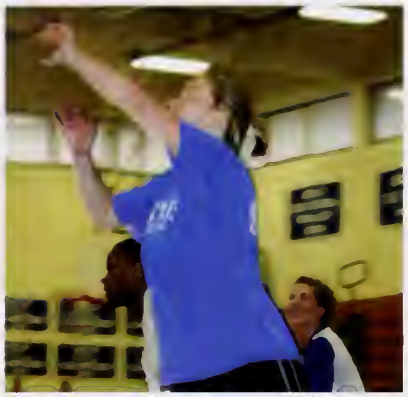
Madame Jacquart and her AP French Class practice singing en français. This close knit group held class in Madame Jacquart's office each day during C block in preparation for the AP exam.

English teachers Ms. Herlihy, Mr. Beattie and Ms. Maguire plan curriclum for their freshmen English classes. While students get a free afternoon during early release days, teachers spend those hours working hard, or so they say.

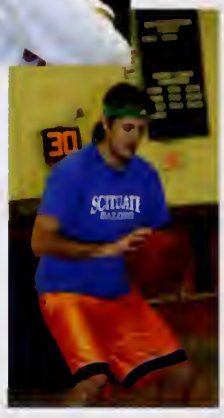


Once upon a time Ms. Maguire played for SHS. Here she shows up sophomore Rodney Beldo and senior Rachel Flynn.

Always sporting the best costumes, Mr. Brogna tries out for the SHS mascot position.

Ms. Donnelly, Ms. Hallihan and Ms. Bird wait on the bench for their turn.

Ms. Bird knows it's all fun and games...until the faculty loses by just one point!

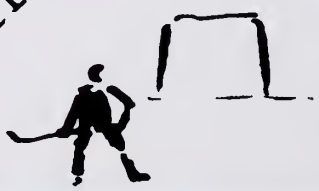


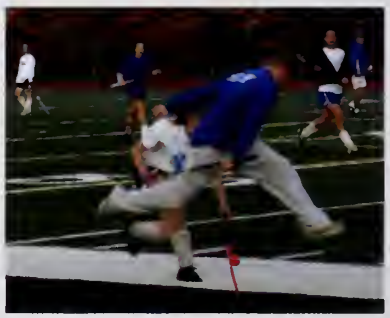
Bright pants for spirit days and colorful shorts for B-ball, Mr. McEachern knows style, or so he thinks.

Coach Castle as the ref; is that really fair to the students? Mr. McLaughlin doesn't seem to mind.

Mr. Dillon (and his hair) practice free throws before the game.

So you wanna game? The faculty says: Bring It On!





Senior field hockey defender Becca Meyrick shows Mr. Parkins how things are done on the turf.

The SHS staff prepares a game plan as they face the field hockey team.

Is that Mr. Brogna in a kilt?

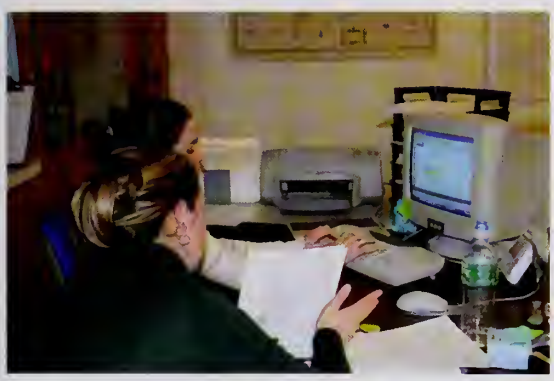
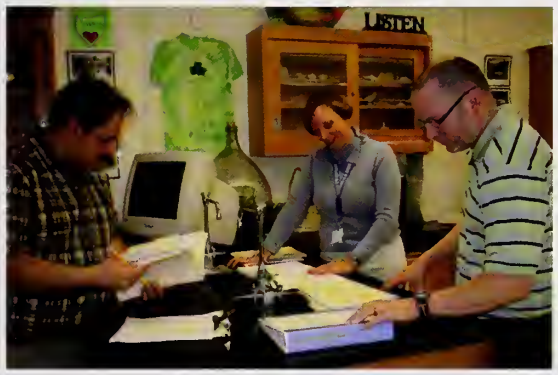
Ms. Kanter and Ms. Smith work to compile data for the NEASC Curriculum Committee Report.



A team from the New England Association of Schools & Colleges visited SHS April 6-10 to determine how well the school was meeting NEASC standards. Faculty, students, parents and community members spent nearly two years preparing reports for the visit.



As members of the Community Resources of for Learning Committee, teachers Mr. Haddad, Ms. Dakin and Mr. Maguire gather the final data for their report.

Retirement - How sweet it is!

We bid you a fond farewell Dr. Pendleton and thank you for your tireless dedication to excellence. You've inspired your students and every teacher who has had the pleasure of working with you. Good luck and enjoy retirement!

Dr. Pendleton ~ 1990

"There is a whole new kind of life ahead, full of experiences just waiting to happen. Some call it 'retirement.' I call it bliss." ~Betty Sullivan

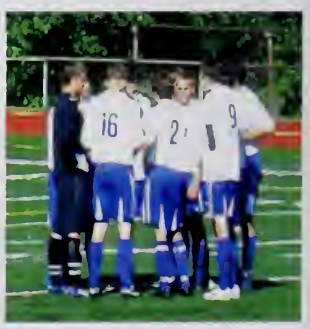
BOYS SOCCER

Coach: Mr. Forde
Captains: Chris gentile, Greg Hall, Jamie Pratt
Team: Robbie Vogel, Ryan MacDowell, Mike Berlo, Pete Finnegan, Max Liedtka, Kurt Stevens, Cory Walls, Harry Rose, Tim Demers, Chris Andrade, Chris Nelson, Nick Jones, Kevin Brennan, Max Pettinelli, Cooper Davis, Jamie Murray, Eric Palmer.

The team started the 2007 season on a high note by beating East Bridgewater 1-0. Unfortunatly, during the middle of the season the team was plagued by injuries at key positions. These injuries hindered the team's onfield chemistry and timing. After working hard to overcome these injuries, the team held itself in a good position and was still eligible to make the tournament during their last game.

The team was led by a strong group of nine seniors. The boys ended their season at 7-9-2, a severe improvement from the last year. One of their best victories was over former coach Mr. Willis, when they beat the Cohasset team 3-2. Captains Greg Hall, Chris Gentile and Jamie Pratt all made all stars, as well as honorable mention, Max Petinelli.



GIRLS SOCCER

Coach: Ross Maki
Captains: Jackie Jones, Tess Weafer
Team: Coley Cook, Melissa Faletra, Audrey Carr, Ashley Fougere, Jess Cutler, Lisa Figuerido, Katrina Verre, Rosie Branton, Jen Keaney, Emily Anderson, Katie Whittier, Shawna Burkhardt, Molly Howlett, Emily Fougere, Jess Szklut, Nicole Buckley, Alex Wood, Hannah Winn, Michaela Murray, Alannah Woodford

The girl's soccer team (12-6-1) had an exceptional season this year, qualifying for the state tournament just a few weeks into their season. The team finished their regular season with a record of 12-5-1. Teams like Duxbury, Dedham, Cohassett, Pembroke, Rockland and Silver Lake were challenging for the lady sailors. Katrina Maki, Jackie Jones, Tess Weafer and Rosalie Branton were awarded spots on the Patriot League All-Star team, along with honorable mentions Lisa Figuerido, Jess Cutler and Emily Fougere. The girls unfortunately lost to Holliston in the first round of the playoffs.

Seniors Jackie Jones, Audrey Carr, Melissa Faletra, Coley Cook, Katrina Maki, Chole Hall, Ashley Fougere, Jess Cutler, Tess Weafer and Lisa Figuerido have been great contributors to the soccer team throughout their high school careers.

The seniors weren't the only ones working hard on the field this season. Junior Rosie Branton had a phenomenal season and led the league in goals scored with 22 goals. Also, sophomore Emily Fougere was another great contributor to the team.

Going into the fall 2007 season the Scituate Varsity Field Hockey Team was looking for a winning season and to compete with the top teams in the Patriot League. After a rough ending to an overall successful season in 2006, the 14 returning varsity players entered the season with hopes of making tournament.

The girls ended the season going 4-6-2 in league action. They dominated in games against Middleboro, Silver Lake, and Pembroke, and played hard-fought games against top teams such as Hanover and Hingham. After a hard loss to Duxbury, the girls missed their chance of post-season play, but they increased their level of play this year.

Katie Gillan, Carly Glancy, and Meghan Thibeault made the Patriot League All-Star team, as well as honorable mentions Michaela Connolly, Christina McCourt, and Molly Yuknis.

Zaccardi also finished in the top ten in the State Meet, qualifying herself for All-States. Kupchella was the next Scituate runner to finish at the State Meet.

2008 Eastern Mass Champions

The boys hockey team fought to defend their Division 3 state title at the TD Banknorth Garden March 16 against Westfield, the same team they defeated the previous year. After winning 1-0 last year, Westfield got their revenge this time around by scoring in the final minute to secure the title. While Scituate faced a devastating 3-2 loss, after it looked like they would definitely go into overtime, the boys played a hard-fought game, with goals scored by Danny Galvin and Pat Duggan.

The team plowed through the rest of their opponents in the playoffs. They won their semifinal match up in an 8-2 blowout over Marblehead. Galvin scored a hat trick, Duggan and Mac Luciani each had 2 goals a piece, and Brad Stenback started off the night with the first goal. Scituate beat Westwood 5-3 in the South Finals with goals from Duggan, Galvin (2), Brian Pratt and Jamie Pratt. They beat Pembroke 5-1 with goals again from Jamie Pratt, Luciani, Galvin, Duggan and Ryan Woodford. The Sailors fought for another win against Medway, winning 3-2 in overtime. Duggan got the tying goal and then scored 45 seconds into OT to secure the win. In the first round of the playoffs, Scituate defeated Norwell 4-1, goals scored by Duggan, Greg Donovan, Pat Mahoney, and Jamie Pratt.

The squad made it further than any previous team had made it in the state tournament throughout the program's history. While the outeome of the ehampionship game, when the Sailors lost 79-65 to Frontier Regional High Sehool, was not the outeome that anyone antieipated, the aeeomplishments of the team during the season are extremely impressive. The Sailors finished the season Patriot League Champions for the seeond year in a row with a reeord of 22-3. The team defeated Wareham in the South Seetional finals and Watertown in the EMass Finals on their way to the State final.

The Sci-Cohs had an amazing 2007-2008 season! The girls finished out the season with a record of 6-2, only falling to Duxbury and Hanover-Rockland. However, in Patriot League Championships, the girls triumphed over Hanover-Rockland, placing second in the Patriot League. The boys finally beat out their long-standing rivals, Duxbury, making for an undefeated season! They were not only first place in the Patriot League, but they also came in an impressive third of all public schools in the state sectional meet. Go Sci-Cohs!!

SCI-COH DIVE TEAM

WRESTLING

Coaches: Mr. Michael Dillon, Mr. Greg Ranieri, Mr. James Dillon
Captains: Rashid Yasin, Ethan Flood, Marty Noenickx, Eric Palmer
Team: Pat Ivens, Bob Norton, Tony Antonito, Brendan Conolly, Phillip Elliot, Phillip Santiano, Kevin Duffey, Bennet Rose, Brian Palmer, Brendan Perkins, Jonathan Wells, Michael Madeira, Michael Gillan, Michael Neil, Joe D'Ambrosia, Carlos Lopes, Jake Buckley, Caleb DuVoisin, Jeff Hinkley, Chris Talbot; Missing: Cameron Showell, Ethan Flood

The 2007-2008 season for the Wrestling team was a year of growth for the team and a number of strong performances by stand-out athletes.

The team was largely composed of underclassmen, led by the sole senior and Captain Rashid Yasin along with junior Captains Ethan Flood, Marty Noenickx, and Eric Palmer. The team had many hard struggles in the regular season dual-meets, finishing with a final record of 8-17.

By the end of the season, many of the underclassmen were giving strong performances, culminating in Jake Buckley's overtime win against Winchester.

In the post-season, Ethan Flood showed tremendous accomplishments, winning the Sectional tournament, and progressing through the State and All-State tournaments to the New England tournament where he took fifth place. Eric Palmer and Brendan Perkins both placed in the Sectional tournament and did a fantastic job representing Scituate at States.

WINTER CHEERLEADING

Coach: AnneMarie McNeil
Captains: Michelle Mahoney

BOYS LACROSSE

Coach: Rick Bagby
Captains: Ryan Woodford, Jake Gray, Alex Ciessau, Alex Cuomo, Chris Yuknis

Although they started with a few rough games, the boys lacrosse team came out very hard against their rival Cohasset and dropped the decision by 2 goals. After this point they started playing as a team and coming together to win. At this point the team was 7-4, and realized they needed to give 100 percent for the rest of their season.

Senior Ryan Woodford states, "We all know that we have a huge advantage over all of the teams we will be playing, we always have an extra player on the field, Tim Mahoney."

GIRLS LACROSSE

Coach: Jen Smith
Captains: Carly Glancy, Melissa Faletra, Coley Cook
Team: Kerrin Kasianowicz, Chloe Hall, Dana Cullen, Katie Reynolds, Ashley Hawkins, Sarah McLellan, Kerry Harrigan, Taryn Sacchitella, Micaela Deary, Kathleen Marshall, Emily Duggan, Meghan Lowrance, Alannah Woodford, Krista Kasianowicz, Kacie Kasianowicz

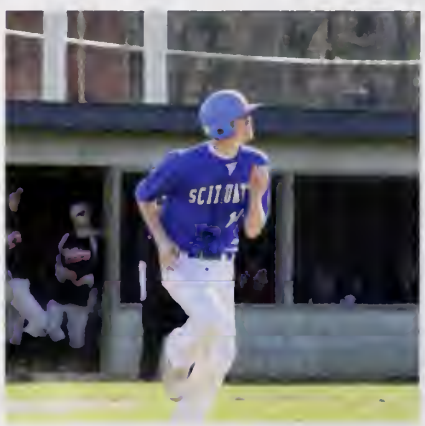
Team: Marcus Joyce, Nick Lombardo, Rob Vogel, Jeff Karlberg, Tim Demers, Harry Rose, Billy Doherty, Rob Carlezon, Andy McDonald, Pat Falaro, Jordan Jenkins, Casey Burns

The boys baseball team is led by the veteran leadership of nine seniors. Senior Blaine O'Brien leads a deep pitching staff and threw back-to-back no hitters, catching the eyes of many pro scouts. The team won the Brian F. O'Donnell Memorial Tournament for the first time since 2001, defeating both Hull and Marshfield. Fielding errors have plagued the team at times throughout the season, but they have, at many times, proved strong by coming back from these miscues and multi-run deficits to be victorious.



SOFTBALL

Coaches: Jayne Horseman, Ashley Bramwell
Captains: Emily Foster, Katie Gillan, Meg Thibeault
Team: Kim Gaughan, Katie Whittier, Meghan Winders, Jackie Lane, Kelly Naeglin, Meghan Crowley, Jenny O'Brien, Jessie Whitter, Gracie Castle

The SHS softball team graduated 9 seniors last year leaving many vacant spots in both the infield and outfield. Many players are playing new positions and stepped up in a huge way.

Leadership in the in field provided by captains Emily Foster and Meghan Thibeault. Starting pitcher sophomore Kelly Naeglin provides strength and confidence on the mound and even struck out 12 batters in a game against Weymouth. The entire program is optimistic about the future.

Beating top rivals Hingham and Duxbury, the girls went 8-0 in the first half of the season, hoping to secure the Patriot League Championship and a spot in the state finals.

COLOPHON

The 2008 Chimes yearbook theme was Footprints in the Sand. As the yearbook staff thought about themes at the beginning of the school year, they wanted to capture the things that make Scituate, well, Scituate. We came up with several possible themes and the senior class of 2008 voted on these in their English classes. There's no doubt that alumni will always remember their summer days at the beach and think fondly on the footprints they made throughout their four years at Scituuate High School.

Chimes was printed by Taylor Publishing Company at their plant in Dallas, Texas. Conrad Schmidt was the company representative. There were 170 copies sold for $85 each, with 160 full color pages in each copy. All pages were designed by Chimes editors and the members of the 2007-2008 Scituation newspaper staff using Adobe InDesign software. Cover art was designed by the exceptionally talented Abbey Newkirk '08. O'Connor Studios of Tewksbury, MA, represented by Steve Dillard, provided all underclass, faculty, and group club photos. Many sports photos were provided by Suzy Park of Days End Photography of Scituate.

Chimes is advised by Ms. Colleen Gacic and would not have been possible without the tireless efforts of the following 2008 graduates: Editor-In-Chief Maegan O'Rourke, Underclass Section Editors Colleen Ralston and Alyssa Roder, Clubs & Activity Editors Kary McCafferty & Shannon Hendrickson and Senior Class Editors: Colby James, Chelsey Rooney, Kelsie Litchfield, Emma Hernan, Molly Federl and Amanda Flannery.We'd also like to give a shout out to the loan underclassman on the Chimes staff: junior Chris Jacobucci, Junior Section Editor. Also another special thanks to the Scituation staff, you know we could not have done this without you.

Finally, many people wonder why the name of the SHS yearbook is Chimes. The Scituate Historical Society has provided us with an answer in this year's ad on page 159. We thank them for their wisdom and the support from all our business, community and family sponsors.

Devon-
